

ON THE PROBLEM OF JUDGMENT AT THE INTERSECTION OF PHILOSOPHY AND LAW

Day 1 - Thursday 17th of June 2021

1st Session
13h - 16h: Reading group on Lacan's La Lettre volée (cartel) – coordinated by Gertrudis Van de Vijver, Emiliano Acosta & Angela Condello

2nd Session
16h - 18h: Plenary lecture: The Artist as a Judge - The Judge as an Artist – by Bert Van Roermund

UCT+2 (Time)

Day 2 - Friday 18th of June 2021

1st Session
– The perspective of the law – coordinated by Gertrudis Van de Vijver and Emiliano Acosta

9h - 10h: Judging without criteria: Derrida reader of (Lyotard and) Kafka – by Alberto Andronico

10h - 11h: Some Remarks on Lyotard's Différend: on Legal Science as Disagreement – by Angela Condello

Coffee Break (30min)

11h30 - 12h30: On the Crisis of Political Judgment – by Alessio Lo Giudice

Lunch Break (60min)

2nd Session
– The perspective of philosophy – coordinated by Angela Condello

13h30 - 14h30: On imperative judgments from Kant to Schelling – by Emiliano Acosta

14h30 - 15h30: Broken judgment, reciprocity and the divided subject: bridging Kant, Canguilhem, and Lacan – by Gertrudis Van de Vijver

15h30 - 16h30: Improvisation, aesthetic judgment and normativity – by Alessandro Bertinetto

Coffee Break (30min)

3rd Session
17h - 19h: Plenary lecture: Change of paradigm in the philosophy of modernity: from the Cartesian Cogito to the Fichteian Dialog. Identity and otherness by Fichte – by Ives Radrizzani

UCT+2 (Time) After-Course Drink

Location

Online on Zoom: <https://zoom.us/download>
(further details will be communicated)

Participation

Open to advanced students doctoral candidates post-doc researchers teachers & professors

Enrolment

Participation = free / Registration = required

Deadline enrolment: Wednesday 2 June 2021

Please confirm by providing your

- First name and surname
- Affiliated institute
- Position (Student, PhD-candidate, ...)

To jonasvanbrabant6@hotmail.com

See you then!

Supported by

HICO - Centre for the History of Philosophy & Continental Philosophy

Participating Institutes

Free University of Brussels (VUB) (co-org.)
University of Messina (co-org.)
University of Catania
University of Turin
University of Tilburg
Ludwig-Maximilian University of Munich